Policy

Western Maritime Institute does not issue Transport Canada Certificates of Competency. These are only issued by Transport Canada

1. Western Maritime Institute will accept any Transport Canada training certificate issued by an accredited Transport Canada listed course provider for the course identified on the certificate.
2. Training certificates or other documents issued by third parties or foreign training establishments will not be accepted by WMI unless previously approved by Transport Canada in writing.
3. Student shall be requested to permit WMI to take copies of training certificates issued by other accredited Transport Canada course providers. These copies will be included with the student file. It is recognized that training certificates issued by other Transport Canada accredited institutions are the property of the student who is under no obligation to supply a copy, unless required as a pre-requisite for a WMI course.
