

Reading Challenged Student Policy

Western Maritime Institute

Name of Policy

Reading Challenged Student Policy

September 1st 2010

Implementation Date

Chief Instructors/Instructors

Position(s) Responsible

March 28, 2018

Date of Last Revision

Policy

Students who are severely challenged reading or understanding the English Language are entitled to have the final examination read to them with the available answers.

At the beginning of each course, where Transport Canada permits the student to be examined orally, the instructor shall read the following statement to the class as a whole.

Student who have difficulty reading the English Language or fully comprehending the written English language are entitled to be examined orally. If you have difficulty reading or understanding the written English Language, contact me at your convenience prior to the examination and we will arrange for you to be examined orally.

Where a student request to be examined orally, the instructor will schedule time at the end of the course to accommodate this request.